Another race, the following spring supplies;

WITHSTANDING the numerous inaccuracies and typographical errors, which last year attended the UNIVERSITY CALENDAR, the success it experienced, and the high approbation of its design, which some distinguished Characters have been pleased to express; abundantly substantiate the utility of such an undertaking.

To expatiate much on the present occasion would be needless. The nature of the publication is generally understood; it remains only needful to observe that the most important additions are the University MEN and the PATRONAGE, the statement of which given this year, together with the INCUMBENTS, will be found, it is presumed, neither deficient nor inaccurate.

A complete list of the TRIPOSES is again subjoined, with many essential corrections; the Editor having been favoured through the politeness of Mr. Jones, Senior Tutor of Trinity, with a manuscript Copy, which together with the CAMBRIDGE GRADUATI, has been attentively examined and every name carefully compared.

Considering the late advance on Paper, the Printing, and other contingent expences, the small additional increase of the price was, in the present instance, wholly reasonable. But should the present undertaking receive a favourable reception, the same attention should continue to be paid, to render the CALENDAR, not only interesting to the immediate Members of the University, but serviceable to the Public at large.

From the similarity of Names, many mistakes unavoidably occur, particularly in the larger societies; and corrections, for a future edition, left at Mr. Jones's Circulating Library, the Editor will gladly receive himself. Amidst the multiplicity of errors last year only was there noticed.

Should

Should the fidelity and correctness of the following sheets be deemed entitled to any degree of commendation, the Editor can claim in it only a subordinate share. For almost every improvement he stands indebted to the under-mentioned GENTLEMEN, whose liberality and goodness, in supplying information and revising, will be ever gratefully remembered and acknowledged.

UNIVERSITY PRIZES.

TWO gold medals, value 15 guineas each, are annually by the Chancellor of this University, to commencing Bachelors of Arts, who having finished Senior Optimes, acquit themselves the best in classical learning. The successful candidates are named at the second Tripos day upon a * subject appointed by the Vice-Chancellor; who, together with the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity, St. John's, Christ's, Clare-hall, Peter-house, and the Fellow of Trinity college elected from Westminster school, examines the Candidates and adjudges the prizes. When there is an equality of votes the Chancellor decides. Adjudged last year to,

The Representatives in Parliament of this University give four annual Prizes of 15 guineas each, which are adjudged by the Vice-Chancellor and heads of Colleges, to two senior and two middle Bachelors of Arts, who shall compose the best dissertations in Latin Prose, which are read publicly by them on a day appointed near to the Commencement. Each candidate sends his exercise, privately, without his name, as he chuses, transcribed by another person, but read and pointed by himself, to the Vice-Chancellor, previous to the 1st of June, with some Latin verse written upon it; and he is at the same time to send a paper sealed up, with the same Latin verse on the outside, which paper shall enclose another paper folded up, with the Candidate's name written within. The papers, containing the names of those Candidates who shall not succeed, are destroyed unopened; which secrecy, the modesty of those, who might otherwise fear a repulse, is effectually consulted. UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

AD CRAVEN founded two classical scholarships
 5. per ann. each. Electors, the Vice-Chancellor, Regii Professors, and the Orator. Whenever a vacancy occurs, any Undergraduate, or Bachelor of Arts may offer himself as a candidate, by signifying intentions in a Latin letter addressed to the examiners, within fourteen days after the publication of the vacancy. If any one of the kindred of the founder should be in indigent circumstances, and a scholar of this University, (by the will) is to be preferred. This annuity is to be enjoyed after 14 years, nor by any one,
 may attain to preferment of double its value.
 Possessors are not allowed to be absent from the University above three months in the year, without express permission of the Vice-Chancellor, or the part of the electors then resident in the Uni-

Wm. BROWNE, Knt. M. D. left a perpetual charge of £21. per ann. upon sundry estates for giving a scholarship, to be paid, clear of taxes and payments, to the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars

of this University. A candidate for this scholarship must offer himself for examination within a year from his matriculation; public notice being given to the Vice-Chancellor a month before such election. This scholarship, with all the arrears which may happen by vacancy, is tenable for 7 years; but the Possessor, if of another college, is obliged to remove to Peter-house; and reside there every entire term during his undergraduateship. Electors to this scholarship the same as to Lord Craven's.

Present Possessor.

John King.

WM. BATTIE, M. D. left an estate of £30. ann. on a plan similar to the above, but subject to the following particular conditions, 1st. Every scholar shall reside nine calendar months in the year, except he be a graduate in Physic, or one, who designs to profess the same. In that case his residence may be dispensed with at the University; provided he produces once every year a certificate signed by the Hospital Physician in London, testifying his regular conduct and diligent attendance with the said Physician at the Hospital. 2d. No scholar is capable of being elected, who has been admitted three years or receives any benefit or advantage from either Lord Craven's exhibitions: and if any one after being admitted to this scholarship shall become entitled to any emolument from the said exhibitions, his claim to this benefaction is void. 3d. When any scholar shall have been entered nine years at the college in which he first belonged, or have obtained any ecclesiastical benefice or preferment, excepting he be a Fellow of some one college, his right to this legacy shall then cease and determine. The electors to this scholarship are the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Professors of Law, Physic and Divinity and the Proctors for the time being.

CLARE-HALL.

(FOUNDED 1326.)

In this college there are 10 senior, 2 middle, and 2 junior fellowships, to which men of all counties are eligible. To prevent undue influence, there cannot be more than 2 fellows of the same county, in the same city; nor a majority of men born north of the Trent. Stafford and Lincoln are considered as southern, Derby and Notts as northern. No elections take place in the middle and junior fellowships.

Of the three bye fellowships, two are appropriated to Kent, and one to Norfolk. The revenues and preferment of this college are very good.

There are about 30 scholarships, from 1s. 6d. to 7s. 6d. value, left by different benefactors; also one of 10s. a week, which if not claimed by a Baker's son, goes to a Clergyman's orphan: one of 12s. and 9d. a week to a scholar from Hull school, and two of £10. a year each, appropriated to scholars from the field school. In the course of three years these latter scholarships will be worth £30. per ann. each; in consequence of their increased and increasing value, it has been determined by the Master and Fellows, that no candidates for these scholarships shall be admitted of the college, who do not appear at examination, perfectly deserving of such emolument. There is another of £20. per ann. founded by Lady Trott, which can be held by the person who is admitted to it, until he takes his Master of Arts degree, becomes a Fellow of the society; and 4 exhibitions of £10. per ann. each, founded by Archdeacon John-son, for persons educated at Oakham and Uppingham schools.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

One of 10 guineas, left by Mr. Greaves of Fulbourn, Bachelor of Arts who composes the best dissertation on the character of King William III. which is read on the 4th of November in the hall of the college.

Two also of 6 guineas each are given to the Quæstors; one to the best proficient in general literature the other as a reward for regularity and good conduct.

There are several scholarships belonging to this society, from 5 to £10. per ann. and five from 4 to £6. which are usually given to sizars. Besides which there are six founded by the Rev. Charles Parke formerly rector of Oxburgh, Norfolk, for superannuated scholars from Merchant Taylor's school, and one scholar educated at the Free-school of Boston Yorkshire; the value of each is £30. per annum, may be held seven years. In case there are no claimants, they are without any restriction, in gift of the master. One of £36. per ann. left by Stuart, for a superannuated Merchant Taylor's scholar, also others of £20. each, (the present value) belong to Serjeant Moses, to scholars chosen from Christ Church Hospital.

TRINITY-HALL.

(FOUNDED 1350.)

AT this college there are 10 lay and 2 divinity fellowships. Bishop Bateman, the founder and benefactor of this institution, originally intended to have augmented the number to 20; but dying before the designed foundation was compleated, (viz. 1355 at Avignon) his legacy was only deemed sufficient for the maintenance of a Master, three fellows and two scholars. The 9 remaining fellowships were founded by the following Benefactors; two by Sir John Dalling, Esq; three by Bishop Nix, one by Sir John Goodknape, Esq; one by Dr. Hewke, one by Sir John Mowse, and one by the college. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the divinity fellowships, the fellows are necessarily obliged to elect a member of their society; and preference is generally given to the learned and respectable candidate of a different college. They are now enjoyed by fellows formerly of the Queen's. The lay fellowships are usually held by those who have taken their degrees in law, though a member of a different description is equally eligible. The succession is very slow; for it is esteemed an honourable to be a lay fellow at this, as * The Poet expresses it, Hall surpassing All, that few have been so fortunate as to be elected ever to resign so desirable a post. The fellowships are not restricted as to counties, but in order to become a candidate, the tenure of a scholarship for 3 years is absolutely requisite. The possession of any benefice is however inconsiderable as to value, vacant in the Divinity fellowships.

* The works of TUSSEK, with a singular account of his life written by himself, may be found in a small collection of ancient Tracts, (M. 17. 64.) in the public Library of this University.

scholarships, worth 5s. and 3d. per week each, in number; two founded (as before mentioned) Bateman, Bishop of Norwich, one by Simon ng, Esq; one by Mr. Spycer, two by Bishop one by Lawrence Mapetyde, Esq; one by el Dunne, Esq; two by Dr. Hervey, one by bishop Parker, two by Dr. Busby, and one by lowse. There are also two (value £15. per ann. on a different foundation; and one, to which annexed the office of Librarian, which is always to the sizar, and for which he receives £50. ann.

is worthy of remark, that this Seminary numbers amongst many other distinguished characters, the same Judge of the Ecclesiastical Courts, the late of the Admiralty, and three of the present non law Judges; and that in the present reign, have been two Lord Chief Justices of the common Pleas, who received their education at this age.

KING'S COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1441.)

This royal foundation consists of a provost and fellows or scholars; the latter to be supplied by succession, from Eton college, which was founded and endowed about the same time with this King Henry VI. The time of election of scholars to the royal foundation of Eton, is about the end of July, or beginning of August; on any vacancy in King's, they are admitted upon that foundation: after the expiration of three years from the date of their admission, are chosen fellows. Some of the privileges appertain to King's. The Provost has absolute authority within the precincts; and there is a special composition between this society and the university, its undergraduates are exempt from the jurisdiction of the proctors and other university officers within the limits of the college; neither, by usage, do they take any public exercises in the schools, nor are like others examined for their Bachelors of Arts degree.

CATHERINE-HALL.

(FOUNDED 1475.)

THE fellowships at this college are 13 in number, on the college foundation which are open to all land, with this limitation, that there shall not be more than two fellows of any one county at the same time; six give a preference to those born in Yorkshire, and in failure of them to men born in the county of Lincoln; and one is appropriated to Coventry. There are several scholarships and exhibitions: ten (ten excepted) are open to men of any county. Ten, founded by Mrs. Mary Ramsden of Norton, Yorkshire, (who likewise founded the six Yorkshire fellowships) give in like manner a preference to Yorkshiremen, and next to candidates born in the county of Lincoln. There is also a Frankland scholarship of £100 per ann. appropriated to one educated at Tamworth school.

ANNUAL PRIZE.

The sum of 5£'s. worth of Books is given on the Thursday in June, to the best proficient in classics Mrs. Ramsden's foundation. The examiners are the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and Greek Professor.

JESUS COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1496.)

The number of foundation fellowships at this college was only 6, but it has since been increased by various benefactors to 16, one of which was founded by John de Bosc, master of the college: The restriction here is, that the fellows shall be held by persons born in counties north of the Trent. The number of fellows in this college is not vested in the society: on every vacancy the fellows elect two candidates, and the Bishop of Ely elects the third. There is one fellowship to which the Bishop has an exclusive right both to nominate and appoint. When this fellowship becomes vacant, the Bishop elects a man of that side on which there are already the greatest number, the next vacancy on that side is filled by a candidate from a county on the opposite side. The following is a list of the principal scholarships and exhibitions founded by different benefactors:—

One of £10. per ann. each, appropriated to natives of Nottinghamshire or Yorkshire.

One of £30. per ann. each, for Clergymen's sons of all counties.

One of £20. to the son of a living Clergyman, Notts. or Leicestershire have the preference.

One of £15. do. equally open to all counties.

One of £12. per ann. each, for persons educated at St. John's and Tunbridge schools.

One of £10. per ann. each, open to all Clergymen's sons from the degree of B. A. to that of M. A.

One of £6. 8s. per ann. for persons educated at St. John's or Caistor schools.

One of £3. 6s. 8d. per ann. to a native of Essex.

The possessors of these scholarships founded by Tobias de Bosc, Esq; have a classical examination annually, on the first day in Easter week. The examiners are the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Master of St. John's, and the Master of Jesus.

CHRIST'S COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1505.)

AT this college there are 15 fellowships: which were founded by Lady Margaret, mother of King Henry VII. with very large revenues, and open to all counties, but with this restriction that cannot be more than one fellow of a county at same time, except Yorkshire, where there may be two; nor more than six, born south of the Trent. The holders of these 12 fellowships must take orders within 12 months after their election, provided their age will admit of it, if not, within four months.

they have attained the proper age. King Edward VI. added another fellowship, which may be by a layman, of any county. Two more were wards founded, jointly by Sir John Finch, and Thomas Baines:—Those who can prove relationship to the founders of the two latter, have a claim. They are not required to take orders, there any restriction with regard to their studies. Lady Margaret founded 47 * scholarships, with this restriction, that not more than 3 of them be held at the same time, by men of the same county. Dr. Thomas Plume, archdeacon of Rochester, bequeathed £100. to found a scholarship, with preference to men educated at Brentwood, Malden, or Mansford schools; it is at present worth £6. per annum. John Hervey of Thurly in Bedfordshire, bequeathed £150. to found a scholarship, to be held by a man born in that county.—The Rev. C. Clarke, archdeacon of Norwich, laid out £300. to purchase a scholarship; £10. per annum of the income of which is to be given to a Norfolk scholar: the remainder to go to the college. Sir W. Pettyt left £200. for the benefit of two scholars from Skipton school.

T. Wilson gave 3 exhibitions of £5. per annum for men from Kirby Lonsdale school, in Lancashire. There are also 4 exhibitions, from a private estate at Wimbish, in Herts, of £12. per annum each. There are 6 scholarships too for persons educated at Giggleswick, one for those at Huntingdon, and another for those at Upton school.

Christopher Tancred, Esq; founded four divinity scholarships of nearly £80. per annum each; which are to continue for 8 years.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1509.)

THE number of original foundation fellows (or those founded by Lady Margaret) at this college is 32; and the only restriction is, that there cannot be more than two at the same time held by men of the same county. There are also 21 founded by different benefactors; which are entitled to the same privileges as the former. Four of the fellows are allowed to continue laymen.

The following is a list of their respective foundations.

Four by Mr. Ashton; two appropriated to the county of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, one to the diocese of York, one to the bishoprick or diocese of Durham.

One by Mr. Bayley, * to the county of Staffordshire, Derby, or diocese of Lichfield and Coventry.

Two by Mr. Beresford; to the parish of Chester Worksworth, Ashbourne, Derbyshire; or Aston, Staffordshire; and next to the counties.

One by Sir M. Constable; to the county of York.

One by Bishop Dee; to his name and kin, Peterborough school, or Merchant Taylors, London.

One by Dr. Fell; to Furness Fells, Lancashire.

Two by Mr. Gregson; to the county of Lancashire and Norfolk.

One by Mr. Heblethwaite; and two by Dr. Lapin, to Sedbergh school, Yorkshire.

Two by Dr. Keyton; to the Choristers of Southwell, Notts.

One by Lady Rookeby, and one by Mr. Rotherholme; to Beverley, Yorkshire.

One by Mr. Simpson; to Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmorland, or Richmond in Yorkshire.

One by Dr. Thimblebye; to the county of Oxfordshire bridge.

* To prevent frequent repetition, the word appropriated is omitted.

In addition to the preceding fellowships, there are eight founded by Mr. Platt, open to men of all counties, perfectly distinct from the rest, and not entitled to the same privileges.

The number of scholarships at this college is 114; of which, founded by Mr. Platt, have been since appropriated by the college to eight; and are tenable, like fellowships founded by him, by candidates born in the county. Nine likewise, founded by the Duchess of Somerset, have been augmented by the society to sixteen, and are appropriated to men educated at Hereford, Hereford, or Marlborough schools. The remainder, unappropriated, by various benefactors. There are also a considerable number of exhibitions of different values, the principal of which are the following;

One of £20. and two of £15. founded by Mr. Platt for students in divinity, either founder's kin, or born in the province of Canterbury.

One of £16. left by Mrs. Jones to her kindred, or natives of Shropshire.

One of £10. founded by Mr. Robins, to founder's kin or men born in Kent.

One of £20. to men educated at Grantham school, Leicestershire.

One of £12. do. Linton, do. Yorkshire.

One of £10. do. St. Paul's, London, or the free school of Dorchester.

Besides the above, there are a considerable number of less annual value.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Those who are in the first class at the two general examinations, one about the 16th of December, the other about the 6th of June, are entitled to a prize of £50.

Those also whose Themes are thought deserving of notice receive a similar reward.

EMMANUEL COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1584.)

THE number of fellows upon the foundation at this time is 13. To become a candidate it is not necessary to be of any particular county; but there is this restriction, that there cannot be more than one of the same county, at the same time. Besides the foundation fellowships there are two founded by Sir Wol. Dixie, but the possessors of these have no vote in college affairs, nor claim to any living of the university. To be elected a Dixie fellow, it is requisite that you either prove yourself related to that family, or that you have had your education at Market Bosworth school, Leicestershire. The scholarships upon the foundation, (six in number) two founded by Sir W. Dixie, two by Dr. Brainthwaite, and two by John Brown, are open to all counties, but confined to three of the same. There are also four founded by Dr. Whichcot of £10. per annum each: which persons of any degree, county, or standing, are eligible.

Mr. Thorpe founded 5 exhibitions of the value of £10. per ann. each; to hold which, six months residence is required beginning at Michaelmas. Mr. Hubbard added £12. per ann. to be bestowed on the most scholar on that foundation. Dr. Smith founded £16. per ann. with a preference to the schools of Durham and Newcastle. There are likewise 30 exhibitions of different values, but none exceeding £10. per ann. each. Two or three are generally consolidated, and given to the most deserving students.

Professor Harwood gave £200. towards founding a scholarship, with preference to a medical student.

By particular request, the following short History of the foundation, and statement of the present circumstances of Addenbrooke's Hospital is added, with the hope that so benevolent an institution, by being more generally known, may meet with still more liberal support.

ADDENBROOKE'S HOSPITAL.

THIS noble and humane institution stands at the south end of the town of Cambridge. It is a modern and commodious building. John Addenbrooke, M. D. formerly fellow of Catherine Hall, gave £4000. and appointed Trustees, who purchased a piece of ground, built the house, and partly furnished it; but the money, which remained, being insufficient for the support of it, an act of parliament was obtained to make it a General Hospital. It was opened Michaelmas 1766, and has since been greatly improved, and supported, by several voluntary contributions, the produce of Oratorios, &c. &c.—The number of Patients annually relieved is upon an average 700. In April 1766, the Trustees of the said Hospital published the following state of their affairs:

" That the purchase of a garden and of " divers tenements, for the scite of the " Hospital, amounted to	817 13
" That there had been expended in the " building, and about the ground,	3073 8
" And in furniture,	119 1
" That by the above expences, some " great losses, taxes, and law-charges, " their capital was then reduced to,	1804 16

*£1600. of which was vested in the Public Fund and the remainder was laid out by the Trustees for the use of the Hospital. This sum by savings from Benefactions, &c. has since been increased to £7000.

2. Any person who may subscribe the sum of Guineas, or more, for the use of the said Hospital, shall during such time as they continue to the same be respectively considered as Governors of the said Hospital.
